Communion Antiphon ‡ Matthew 4:4

One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.

Historic Meeting of Catholics and Orthodox.

On Friday, 12 February, Pope Francis and Patriarch Kirill of Russia met in Cuba. This is the first time the head of the Catholic Church has met the head of the Russian Orthodox Church since 1054! Pope Francis and Patriarch Kirill have issued a Joint Declaration, which you can read at this website: <http://www.ncregister.com/daily-news/joint-declaration-of-pope-francis-and-patriarch-kirill-of-moscow-and-all-ru/> It begins ...

1. By God the Father's will, from which all gifts come, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, and with the help of the Holy Spirit Consolator, we, Pope Francis and Kirill, Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia, have met today in Havana. We give thanks to God, glorified in the Trinity, for this meeting, the first in history. It is with joy that we have met like brothers in the Christian faith who encounter one another "to speak face to face" (2 John 12), from heart to heart, to discuss the mutual relations between the Churches, the crucial problems of our faithful, and the outlook for the progress of human civilization.

2. Our fraternal meeting has taken place in Cuba, at the crossroads of North and South, East and West. It is from this island, the symbol of the hopes of the "New World" and the dramatic events of the history of the twentieth century, that we address our words to all the peoples of Latin America and of the other continents. ### Entrance Antiphon ‡ Psalm 91 (90): 15-16

When he calls on me, I will answer
him; I will deliver
him and give him
glory, I will grant him length of days.

First Reading ‡ Deuteronomy 26:4-10

The confession of faith of the elect.

Moses said to the people: 'The priest shall take the pannier from your hand and lay it before the altar of the Lord your God. Then, in the sight of the Lord your God, you must make this pronouncement:

"My father was a wandering Aramaean.
 He went down into Egypt to find refuge there,
 few in numbers; but there he became a nation,
 great, mighty, and strong.
 The Egyptians ill-treated us,
 they gave us no peace and inflicted harsh slavery on us.
 But we called on the Lord, the God of our fathers.
 The Lord heard our voice and saw our misery,
 our toil and our oppression;
 and the Lord brought us out of Egypt
 with mighty hand and outstretched arm,
 with great terror, and with signs and wonders.
 He brought us here and gave us this land,
 a land where milk and honey flow.
 Here then I bring the first-fruits of the produce of the soil that you, Lord, have given me."

You must then lay them before the Lord your God, and bow down in the sight of the Lord your God.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm ‡ Psalm 90:1-2, 10-15

R. Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High and abides in the shade of the Almighty says to the Lord: 'My refuge,
 my stronghold, my God in whom I trust!' R.

Upon you no evil shall fall,
 no plague approach where you dwell.
 For you has he commanded his angels,
 to keep you in all your ways. R.

They shall bear you upon their hands
 lest you strike your foot against a stone.
 On the lion and the viper you will tread
 and trample the young lion and the dragon. R.

His love he set on me, so I will rescue him;
 protect him for he knows my name.
 When he calls I shall answer: 'I am with you.'
 I will save him in distress and give him glory. R.

Gospel ‡ Romans 10:8-15

The confession of faith of the believers in Christ.

Scripture says: The word, that is the faith we proclaim, is very near to you, it is on your lips and in your heart. If your lips confess that Jesus is Lord and if you believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, then you will be saved. By believing from the heart you are made righteous; by confessing with your lips you are saved. When scripture says: those who believe in him will have no cause for shame, it makes no distinction between Jew and Greek: all belong to the same Lord who is rich enough, however many ask for his help, for everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation ‡ Matthew 4:4

Alleluia, alleluia!

No one lives on bread alone,
 but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.

Alleluia!

Gospel ‡ Luke 4:1-13

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus was led by the Spirit through the wilderness where he was tempted.

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit through the wilderness, being tempted there by the devil for forty days. During that time he ate nothing and at the end he was hungry. Then the devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to turn into a loaf.'

But Jesus replied,

'Scripture says: Man does not live on bread alone.'

Then leading him to a height, the devil showed him in a moment of time all the kingdoms of the world and said to him, 'I will give you all this power and the glory of these kingdoms, for it has been committed to me and I give it to anyone I choose. Worship me, then, and it shall all be yours.'

But Jesus answered him, 'Scripture says:

You must worship the Lord your God,
 and serve him alone.'

Then he led him to Jerusalem and made him stand on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are the Son of God,' he said to him, 'throw yourself down from here, for Scripture says:

He will put his angels in charge of you to guard you, and again:

They will hold you up on their hands in case you hurt your foot against a stone.'

But Jesus answered him, 'It has been said:

You must not put the Lord your God to the test.'

Having exhausted all these ways of tempting him, the devil left him to return at the appointed time.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
